6. Conditions for an Area Variance
 Describe the special conditions and circumstances that exist which are peculiar to land, structure, or building involved.

Describe the special conditions and circumstances that exist which are not generally applicable to the lands, structures, or buildings in the same district.

Have the special conditions and circumstances relating to the variance request resulted from the actions of the applicant?

How would the literal interpretation of the provisions of the Ordinance deprive the applicant of the rights commonly enjoyed by the other properties in the same district, under the terms of the ordinance?

- Will the variance be injurious to the neighborhood or otherwise detrimental to the general welfare?

- Is the variance the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building, or structure?

- Are the spirit, purpose, and intent of the Ordinance being observed, and the public safety secured?

7. Conditions for a Use Variance

- Describe how the property cannot be reasonably used for any purpose permitted in the area without the variance. There must be financial proof of inability to realize any return.

- Describe the unique circumstance peculiar to the property that exists which are not generally applicable in the area or to the other properties in the same district.

- Have the special conditions and circumstances relating to the variance request resulted from the actions of the applicant or of the applicants' predecessors?

- Will the variance alter the essential character of the area?
